Remembering...

Jennie V. Biggers was born May 26, 1903 to the late Gib Smith and Alice Jenkins-Smith in Sheveport, Louisiana. She was the second oldest of five children, three of which preceded her in death, Gib Smith, Jr., Minnie Hawkins and Willie Ann Woods. Her only child Willie Colbert passed away in October 2005 in San Francisco.

She came to Richmond in 1942 and worked in the shipyard. She later married Mr. Samuel Biggers, who preceded her in death.

She united with McGlothen Temple under the leadership of Reverend G.W. McGlothen soon after she arrived in Richmond. In late 1990, she united with New Gethsemane Church of God in Christ.

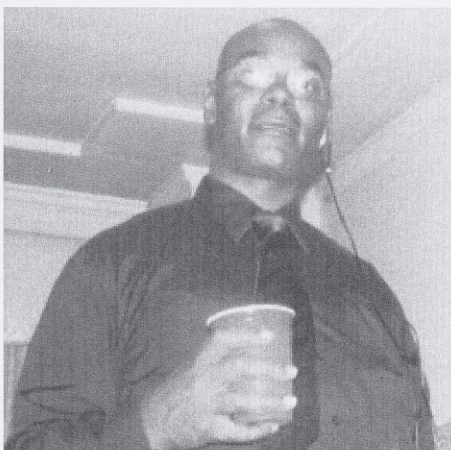

She was a faithful member until her death on her 100th Birthday. She told the West County Time that she attributed her longevity to her religious faith.

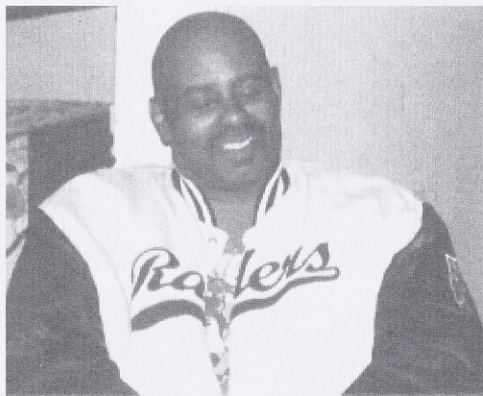

Jennie V. Biggers leaves to cherish her memory; her loving daughter-in-law, Virginia Colbert of San Francisco; five grandchildren, Carlton, Donovan, Freddie, Yolanda, Del Cynthia Colbert of San Francisco, California; ten great grandchildren; four great great grandchildren; her sister Mable Craig; favorite nieces, Alice Segure, Thelma Jackson and Deloris Brown all of Richmond, California; nephew Claudell Woods of Oakland and many great nieces, nephews and a host of relatives and friends.

"Committed To Service With Integrity"

Rest In Peace

A precious one from us has gone

A voice we love is stilled,

A place is vacant in our hearts-

And after a lonely heart ache

And many a silent tears,

But always a beautiful memory-

Of one we love so dear.

Mable Craig (sister) and Alice Segure (niece)
